Great Meteor Crater

THE GREAT METEOR CRATER
Northern Arizona

Sixty stories deep, three miles in circumference and almost a mile in diameter, the crater, and the famous Rim Museum, are open to the public throughout the year. Displays and lectures explain the educational and scientific aspects of meteorite research. This view is to the northwest showing the crater just off U. S. No. 66, and San Francisco Peaks near FLAGSTAFF.

AERIAL PHOTO BY BOB PETLEY

Petley

PUBLISHED BY PETLEY STUDIOS, PHOENIX, ARIZONA

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

D-17003